

School-Age Child Care in Redwood City

Before- and after-school child care programs for five- to twelve-year-old children operate at or near most public and private schools in Redwood City. Parents can call each program listed for specific information on fees, hours, and ages served, and to make an appointment to visit. Programs indicated with  have State-subsidized spaces for income-eligible families; call for details. In addition, some licensed family child care home providers will pick up children at school and provide afternoon and school holiday care; call 655-6777 for referrals.

Other after-school academic support, recreation, and sports activities are available on many campuses. Inquire at the school office.
